PUFF”;

AVAILABLE AT LAST ON FRIDAY, JANUARY 13TH

Black Rain Entertainment recording artist’s Il Tone has announced the release of his eagerly awaited album, “New Direction: My World Overcometh.” The collection, which follows the Memphis-based MC’s acclaimed “Heaven Sent Sent Hell Bound,” will be available at all digital retailers starting today including iTunes (<https://itunes.apple.com/us/album/new-direction-my-world-overcometh/id1161419664>).

Hailing from South Memphis, the “King of Magnolia,” has an extensive catalog of work including features with platinum recording artist Chamillionaire, Lord Infamous, Young Bleed etc.

In 2007 II Tone collaborated with with long time friend, the late Lord Infamous (a founding member of Three 6 Mafia) recording and establishing Black Rain Entertainment, the imprint under which they would release several joint ventures and compilations.

He’s a native son, telling the raw and gritty tales of the streets into a narrative that rides melodic, soulful and sometimes haunting beats synonymous with the classic “Memphis” sound. His storytelling is another piece of the puzzle that fits together with his work ethic, embodying two words that are popularly used to describe Memphis, “hustle” and “grind.”
